Crimson Colored Hands of Time

Savannah Skye (http://poetrypoem.com/savannahskye)

tick... tick... tick... i'm locked inside time's complacency
tick... tick... tick... where crimson colored hands
tick... tick... tick...
my life slowly away
tick... tick... tick...

the blue sky has blackened the fertile earth has transformed into a vast desert forsaken i stand alone

with jilted hand over damaged heart love slits open wrists melancholic wounds exposed by crimson colored hands of time that prolong our forlorn bond in green fields of wistful emptiness where you dance with your inamorata as i watch alone and sullen wind becoming my sole lover while crimson colored hands of time disclose to me love's deception revealing true intentions of disdain that colors my jaded life with multiple shades of mourning as days nonchalantly pass me by

tick... tick... tick...
everyday...
tick... tick... tick... i try to desperately escape time's chokehold
tick... tick... tick... that their crimson colored hands have me in
tick... tick... tick...
everyday...
tick... tick... tick...
they manage to steal another part of my life away
tick... tick... tick...
